

William is one of the best Mad Scientists we have had. He is bursting with energy. He keeps the kids attention. This is the second time he has been here. I can't wait to have him back at our library.

Thank you for all your wonderful science programs