

William was great. Not only did he keep a room of 5+6 year olds interested from beginning to end. He also was able to keep the few old kid and parents just as interested.

The activities were perfect for the 20+ kids. They included all the basic information the children learned in school and some new things.

The kids were still excited about what they learned 2 days later.

Thanks.

Marie Jones